

Dear all participants of ISSBD Workshop

As now, Thailand is in a period of mourning following the passing of His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej. The Workshop committee would like to suggest all participants to wear in black clothing as a sign of mourning. This is not required of visitors but if possible, they should wear somber and respectful clothing when in public.

Thank you for your understanding on this matter and hope to see you soon in Thailand.